Originally built in 1944, this blue-hued farmhouse in Santa Monica received a revamp from designer Sally Trout in 2000 that earned it a spot in that year's edition of the popular coffee table book World's 100 Best Houses. Located in the Sunset Park district, the 2,279-square-foot residence offers two bedrooms, three baths, vaulted ceilings, multiple fireplaces, custom cabinetry, wrap-around windows, and French doors, but its best feature may well be its lovely lap-pool. Sited on a 5,925-square-foot lot, the property is listed with an asking price of $2.275 million. Open house is scheduled for Sunday, April 24 between 2 and 5 p.m.
