

Showbiz Real Estate Elite 2018

Tami Pardee

Founder and CEO, Halton Pardee + Partners

The queen of Silicon Beach, the No. 5 agent in Los Angeles, has sold more than $3 billion worth of residential and commercial properties since starting her career in real estate in 2005. The busy Pardee sold the “Californication” Venice home for record $14.6 million, just opened a Coachella Valley office and will open a Culver City/Mar Vista office in March. “The executive and high-end talent formed by the fusion of tech and entertainment industries continue to create waves of demand for luxury homes across the Westside,” she says.
