Walls that sparkle, lighting that dazzles, and a rooftop deck that beckons, all tucked into a 3300 square foot space in the heart of Venice. 750 California Avenue is an easy sell because the designer, Alon Zakoot, maximized every inch of the 4-bedroom 4-bathroom home.

There's a custom designed pool with a dozen waterfalls, wallpaper with corks, and sparkling walls with glass and glitter. The 360-views on the rooftop desk also comes with a kitchen, firepit, and grassy yard.
